

Bergendal Daytour

A full day to enjoy yourself on this beautiful location on the banks of the Suriname River inspired by the fascinating historical legacy from a captivating colonial past..

Destination:

Located amidst breathtaking tropical rainforest on the banks of the Suriname River, at approximately 85 km from Suriname's capital city of Paramaribo, lies the BERGENDAL Eco & Cultural River Resort. Accessible by road and river within one and a half hour and set within a total area of 2400 hectare, the new Resort with its adjacent BERGENDAL Heritage Village and Adventure Centre, encompass a spectacular nature rich playground offering visitors numerous educational and adventure packed activities.

General information:

With the long involved history of the previous Berg en Dal plantation, its wealth of intriguing stories, legends and myths, the close proximity to the Brownsberg Nature Park and many other key tourist attractions in the area, our Resort is destined to become the exotic new alternative destination and the best quality eco-cultural resort in the region. Comfortable accommodation, first rate amenities and our exquisite restaurant, tastefully blend in with the natural surroundings of the tropical rainforest and amazing river view, providing guests with ample opportunity to relax and connect with the essence of nature. As a resort focused on eco-cultural activities, we take our responsibility with regards to conservation and sustainable development of the valuable ecological resources and exotic biodiversity in and around our resort, very seriously. Local communities with their unique cultural heritage, proud traditions and intriguing folk legends, are actively involved in every aspect of our resort and contribute greatly to the charm and hospitality of BERGENDAL.

Guests at the BERGENDAL Eco & Cultural River Resort will be delighted by the unique blend of adventure, nature, culture, history, education and entertainment which make this resort a one of a kind, unforgettable vacation destination. So whether it's adventure you're looking for in your next eco tourism experience, or simply peace and tranquillity in a comfortable nature rich destination, the BERGENDAL Eco & Cultural River Resort is the perfect choice for a unique Amazonian Caribbean experience.

Tourdescription:

Around 8.00 am the bus leaves from Krasnapolsky to Bergendal. On the way to Bergendal you will find Suralco, the former refinery, Klaas Creek a maroon village and beautiful savanna and mountain landscapes. At Bergendal you have a wide choice of activities that you can do at the Adventure Centre. Bergendal offers friendly service, comfortable accommodation, a wide choice of activities and a cosy restaurant where you can enjoy your lunch. So you can enjoy the unique combination of adventure, nature, culture, history, education and entertainment. This makes the resort a special experience for the whole family.

Included in the tour:

- Transport by bus v. V
- Lunch Buffet
- Non – Alcoholic beverages
- Use of the pool at the resort-entrance Adventure Centre

Not included in the tour:

- Activities at the Adventure Centre

Note: please reserve the activities in advance.

What to take with you during the tour

- Close, running Running shoes
- Bathtowels
- Extra Clothing
- Maximum 1 luggage allowed per person
- Small-denomination Surinamese money for your personal expenses.

Time duration:

Time	Activity
7.30 am	Check in at the lobby of hotel Krasnapolsky
8.00 am	Depart from Hotel Krasnapolsky

17.00 uur

Bustransfer back to Paramaribo

Note: Pick up and droff of is at Hotel Krasnapolsky on the Domineestraat #39*

Subject to changes