Location:

Kninipaati River Ressort is a relaxation resort located in the Sipaliwini district and is 200km away from Paramaribo. That is a three-hour drive and an hour's drive from the capital.

It is an island that consists of two parts and is located in the middle of the Ferulasi Sula. The manager and host of the resort is Nelson Tiapoe. He is a direct descendant of the enslaved people who fled the plantation and founded the village of Knini at this location.

At the beginning of 2017, the entire resort was renovated and transformed into the luxurious leisure resort that it is now. It is currently the only resort in the luxury segment that is entirely in the hands of local residents. In this beautiful resort with its comfortable lodges you can enjoy flora & fauna, experiencing the local culture or relaxing in the cooling rapids.
